Steve McQueen

The only person on the planet to have been awarded both the Turner Prize and the Camera d'Or is representing Britain at the 53rd Venice Biennale. We speak with McQueen about his body of work.

Venice Roundup

An interview with Venice Biennale artistic director Daniel Bimbaum, plus a thorough preview of what to expect in the Giardini this summer, from the artists and national pavilions to the compelling sideshows.

Marina Abramovic

The grande dame of performance art is at the Manchester International Festival this summer. We look at her influence on a whole generation of artists, and assess the status of performance art today.
